Old Business: None

New Business:
- Fall Festival – ROTC 40-50 volunteers
- Boy Scouts are handling three scenes for the hay ride / no reply from the Girl Scouts
- Philip Scarfo cannot do a scene now because he will be unable to attend the festival
- Jeanette has the stickers for the pumpkins
- K9s are set for 1100
- We have a new popcorn machine
- Barb will get the containers for the food bank
- Parade is set
- High school band is booked
- String bands are booked
- Registrations are coming in
- We still need a Grand Marshall
- Jim suggested Jeanette Remsen to be Grand Marshall, entire commission agreed and Jeanette accepted.
- Bob has the car and Bart McIlvane will drive
- Tiffany is working on the walki talkies

Director’s Report:
- Ambulance Squad asked if they can sell baked goods at the festival. Commission is fine with this as long as they stick to baked goods and drinks.
- High School Renaissance would like to have kids at different schools make scarecrows and hang on the posts at Owens. Jim thinks this is a good idea and thinks we can give an award for the best and the commission agreed.
- The one product we are always missing is coffee. Traders Lane Coffee sent a flier and Jim thought it might be a good idea to reach out and invite them for the festival.
- A new resident called asking for more information about the town. She happens to be a face painter. Jim told her about the fall festival and she would like to come out and would not charge for her services as this is her way to give back to the community. The commission has no issue with this.
- We are moving forward with the Duffy house. The windows are done and ready to be installed.

Mayor’s Report:
- Furniture store is gone and working with a developer on that property.

Council Report: None

Public Portion:
- Ernie Carbone – Committee on Main Street formed by Mayor Teefy with 30 volunteers in the process of planning some events like a scarecrow contest. He will be interested in attending more meetings.
