Old Business:
- Music Festival was outstanding with a great crowd.
- Some feedback was there were not enough rides, specifically mechanicals for the older kids to ride. P&R will need more funds for the cost.
- Jim suggested starting earlier perhaps 4pm.
- Lines for food were too long and a lot sold out – may need more food vendors next year and a wider variety.
- Need more bathrooms.
- Rack’s Beer Garden sent a check for $400; is it worth having the beer garden? Do we replace it with more food vendors or shrink the area of the garden? Majority thinks shrink the area to be able to add more food vendors.
- New basketball courts need to be closed off.
- Sound system did not carry when one person was talking.
- Too much down time with the music.
- Small county stage is already booked for next year and Jim thinks we are going to need another stage.
- Too many no shows on vendors.
- Someone must always be in a vendor spot.
- Starting to check out bands for next year.
- Need electric back by stage.
- Bob said food vendors spaces need to be a little bit wider.
- Bob suggested reaching out to a golf cart company to do a courtesy shuttle.
- Little kids cannot be back where the band is setting up.

New Business:
- Send Jim any changes you want made to the Halloween flyer ASAP.
- The Christmas Parade is nixed for this year per Jim’s conversation with George Miller.

Public Portion:
- John Giordano, 330 Brynmawr Dr is asking for permission to run the Monster Mile again this year before the parade. The Badgers will advertise and pay for everything. Start time will be 20 minutes before the parade. They also have a triathlon coming up at the new vineyard.
