Old Business:

- Donna received a lot of good feedback on the parade
- Bob said we need working walkie talkies for the line up in the parking lot
- Need more people at the parking lot to help
- Need more people by the theater to keep things moving
- Candy throwing from the float in not allowed and yet it continues to happen – communication on this needs to be more pronounced in the letter
- Street will close earlier next year from Church to Blue Bell
- Bob suggested looking into metal fencing to blockade
- The police want all vendors to have background checks for next year – they will need to be approved and get badges – they need to report for this 2 months in advance
- Carmella thinks the bounce attractions need to be further out because the noise was a distraction for the K9 show
- Hay ride decorations were fantastic
- Both events were very successful and the ROTC was a huge help
- The bees were a problem
- Lot of complaints about the trash on Main St
- Megan suggested getting a banner for the end of the hay ride to advertise the tree lighting
- Bob asked everyone to review the applications for members to replace the resigned members. Appointments need to be completed Monday

New Business:

- Decorating contest flyer is going out to the schools
- Tree lighting flyer is ready to go
- Meet the night before at 6pm (12/1)
- Meet at 430pm on Saturday (12/2)
- Good on supplies such as popcorn
- Linda will be Mrs. Claus
- Sherri will handle the fire department details
- Jeanette is going to get back to us about the snacks, hot chocolate, etc
- High School Choir will be here from 530pm-615pm
- Camera and printers are ready to go
- Need to get a smaller tent for the balloon man
- Street decorations will start going up on Tuesday and will take about 2 weeks
- Don’t Call me Francis is confirmed for the Music Festival – they did raise their price based on them wanting to use their own sound
- Need to come up with dates for 2018 meetings / events
- Saturday the Rotary is installing a playground at Duffy and looking for volunteers
- Bathrooms were not open at Owens on Saturday but Jim said they open at 12pm

No Public Present
No Council Report
