Reading of Public Notice for Virtual Meeting Via Councilman Greg Wolfe

Old Business: None

New Business:

- Main Street Express December 12th
- Outside guidelines have change
- Event is still a go
- Cannot advertise a gathering in the CVS parking lot; wording will need to be changed
- We cannot be responsible for a large gathering
- Cars need to be kept moving
- Cars are to line up at the exit of the CVS shopping center and police will control the parade start
- All of Main Street will be closed
- At 6pm police car will lead the parade down Main Street
- Santa & Mrs. Claus will be in a sleigh
- All members cannot be out front because the string band has 14 members
- There are 1,000 bags to give out
- Event has over 7,000 views on Facebook
- Road Company will be playing music through their speakers
- One family from St. Mary's will do the live nativity
- Commission needs to enforce guidelines
- No spectators allowed along Main Street
- Christmas lights are currently in Philadelphia – they are due to a COVID shut down
- People cannot get out of cars to take pictures with Santa – info does state no exiting of vehicles
- Cars cannot turn into the Pfeiffer lot
- Sleigh will be at the edge of the driveway – it cannot be on the street
- Mask and gloves must be worn by the Commission
- Hand sanitizer will be available
- Meeting at 5pm at Pfeiffer
- Greg is going to recommend to Council that they NOT attend the event to keep the number of people down
- All members will be marked in attendance for the event due to the circumstances
- Commission temps must be taken and documented
- Flyer needs to get to Stacey to send to the schools

Public: None in attendance nor emails received

Council Report: None

Director's Report: None

Additional Notes:

- We already have the Easter Eggs if the event can be held
- Bands for 2021 Music Festival never received contracts and we have lost the Legacy band – need to book a new band – Donna suggested reaching out to Don't Call Me Francis
